General Terms and Conditions of Participation (GTC)
International participants – Prof. Khoury Symposium, Frankfurt, 5–6 March 2027, and related events

1. Scope

1.1 These GTC apply to participation in the Prof. Khoury Symposium (Frankfurt, 5–6 March 2027) and in the related optional events, when participation is granted as a benefit included in an eligible bredent product package ("Package"). By purchasing the Package and registering, the participant accepts these GTC. Packages are available for international markets, except Germany, where different commercial approaches apply, based on local regulations.

1.2 The Symposium and the related events are organized by Prof. Khoury and his medical team ("the Organizer"), not by bredent. The events are held in English. The Organizer's own conditions of participation and house rules also apply.

2. Eligibility and validity of the offer

2.1 Participation is included only in the eligible Packages purchased until 31 December 2026. No separate course fee is charged for the Symposium.

2.2 The Package price is subject to statutory value-added tax, and the invoice amount must be paid without deduction. The invoice for the Package is issued to the customer upon sale.

3. Seat availability and confirmation

3.1 The number of seats is limited. Seats are allocated on a first come, first served basis, in the order in which registrations are received.

3.2 bredent does not hold pre-reserved seats for the Symposium or the related events. After the Package has been purchased, bredent requests seat confirmation from the Organizer on behalf of the participant.

3.3 Participation is guaranteed only after written confirmation of the seat by the Organizer, communicated to the participant by bredent.

3.4 Registration must be made in writing, using the registration form.

4. Optional additional events

Subject to availability and to separate confirmation by the Organizer, the following additional options are available:

- 3 and/or 4 March 2027 – Live Surgery Course, Olsberg. Participation is possible only for participants who are also registered for the Symposium.
- 6 March 2027 – Hands-On Workshop, Frankfurt.

5. No cancellation by the participant

5.1 Cancellation of participation is not possible. The participation is an integral part of the Package and cannot be cancelled, refunded, credited or exchanged for money, products or other services.

5.2 If the participant decides not to attend the event, for any reason, the commercial value and price of the Package remain unchanged. No partial refund, discount or credit note will be issued.

5.3 If the Package is returned or cancelled, participation in the Symposium and in any related events is automatically cancelled as well.

6. Travel, accommodation and transfers

6.1 Travel, accommodation and local transfers (including between Frankfurt and Olsberg) are organized and paid for by the participant. bredent does not cover these costs and is not liable for them, including in the event of changes to the programme.

7. Changes or cancellation of the event by the Organizer

7.1 The Organizer reserves the right to change the programme, the speakers or the venue, or to cancel the event, in particular if a lecturer falls ill or for reasons beyond its control. In these cases, claims for damages – including travel and accommodation costs – cannot be asserted against bredent.

8. Data protection and recordings

8.1 With reference to our current data protection policy, we refer to the use of personal data as regulated in point 3 of the data protection policy. Personal data required for registration will be passed on to the Organizer for the purpose of seat confirmation.

8.2 With reference to our current data protection policy, we refer to the confirmation to be provided in the participant list regarding the use of photographs, video and audio recordings by bredent medical GmbH & Co. KG and bredent GmbH & Co. KG as a prerequisite for participation in our events. The Organizer may also make recordings according to its own policy.

9. Certificate

9.1 Certificates of attendance are issued by the Organizer, according to its own rules, to participants who have attended the event in full.

10. Special conditions of participation – live surgery

10.1 The participant confirms that they will respect the rights of third parties at all times during the event. In particular, patients and/or clinic staff must not be photographed or filmed during live surgeries unless both the patient and the staff member have consented, the patient is unrecognizable in the recordings (meaning the live procedure is conducted with the face covered so that only the mouth and immediate surroundings are visible), and the patient is not mentioned by name in any publication.
